

WEBINAR

Global Indicators: Briefing on the 10th IAEG-SDGs Meeting

October 10 2019, 9:30 – 11:00am (NY time)

John Romano is the Coordinator of the Transparency, Accountability & Participation (TAP) Network, where he guides a network of over 300 CSOs working around SDG16 and accountability for the 2030 Agenda. John has worked to coordinate wide-ranging civil society and global advocacy campaigns around the 2030 Agenda and UN Climate Change negotiations, and has helped develop several advocacy resources guides for civil society – including the TAP Network’s Goal 16 Advocacy Toolkit and Access to Justice Toolkit. He has previously worked with the UN Secretariat UNDESA’s Division for Sustainable Development, where he helped facilitate the engagement of civil society in the Rio+20 UN Conference on Sustainable Development and coordinated all social media outreach for the conference.

Marianne Haselgrave, Commonwealth Medical Trust has been the Director of the Commonwealth Medical Trust (Commat) since 1995. Having followed the development of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) from the initial negotiations, she has participated regularly as an observer in meetings of the Interagency and Expert Group on SDG Indicators (IAEG-SDGs), as well as attending the World Data Forums in Cape Town and Dubai. Since 1994 she has worked on issues related to the implementation of the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development, particularly sexual and reproductive health and rights. She is not a statistician but has a MA in History, and lives in the United Kingdom.

Sarah Chamness Long is the Director for Access to Justice Research at the World Justice Project (WJP), where she leads the WJP’s thematic research on civil justice, the UN Sustainable Development Goals, and environmental governance. Ms. Long has also managed the production of the WJP Rule of Law Index and the administration of the WJP’s General Population Poll in 126 countries, as well as special data collection efforts in Pakistan and Romania. In addition to her work on the WJP’s research team, Ms. Long had previously managed a portfolio of 20+ pilot rule of law programs incubated and supported through the WJP’s World Justice Challenge competitions, and conducted monitoring and evaluation for 90 WJP seed grants in 60 countries. Prior to joining the WJP, Ms. Long held a number of program management and research roles with The SEEP Network, The Aspen Institute’s Justice and Society Program, and the Center for International Development and Conflict Management (CIDCM). Ms. Long holds a MSc. in Global Politics from the London School of Economics and Political Science and a B.A. in French Language and Literatures from the University of Maryland.

<<<>>